CHAPTER 1

OHM POV

"I'm home!" I shouted, coming back from work, but didn't get any response.

"Baby!" I shouted again, trying to get my boyfriend's attention. I went towards our room and saw him looking at his phone without looking at me.

"Nonbaby," I called him, who ignored me. I'm sure he is angry at me for missing our date. I lay on the other side of the bed while giving him my puppy eyes.

"That won't work with me," Nanon said, making me chuckle.

"You talked," I said, making him glare at me. I zipped my mouth.

"You idiot I was waiting for you almost the whole day, and you're coming now, calling me baby ~," Nanon said while mimicking me, making me laugh a little.

"Why are you laughing? I'm serious here," Nanon said while pinching my ears.

"Ouch, baby, I'm sorry, na na. I got caught in the busy schedule; it's all because of that stupid actress who is trying to flirt with me. It was hard to handle her sh*t and complete the shoot," I said, making Nanon's eyes wide.

"What? Who is that idiot?" Nanon asked as his eyes turned furious. I held his cheeks while pouting, making his eyes soften. I know this always works.

"Hey, I'm your only idiot," I said, trying to lighten up the mood while Nanon rolled his eyes, hitting me on my shoulder. I laughed while lying my head on his lap, and he started to caress my hair.

"Heaven," I mumbled, making Nanon chuckle. I held Nanon's hand while kissing it slowly.

"I'm sorry, non. I will make it up to you," I said while he smiled.

"It's fine; I was angry at you, but you seem to be so tired. It's better to stay at home. We can cuddle all day. I just wanted to be with you, and you can take a rest, so it's a win to win," Nanon said while smiling, showing his dimples and making me smile. I am so lucky to have this angel in my life.

"I don't know what good I did to deserve an angel in my life," I said while caressing his cheeks. He just shook his head.

Suddenly, an idea came into my mind. Well, it's not an idea. I've been planning this for so long that maybe this will be the right time for me to ask him.

I sat up, and he looked at me confused. "Non, let's go on a date," I said, making him shake his head.

"No, we are going to stay home and enjoy our date in our home. It's peaceful here. Come on, let me arrange a movie date for us," Nanon said while standing up from the bed and walking to the living room.

"Nonbaby, please, let's go on a date. I wanted to go out with you; it's been so long," I said, making him smile a little.

"Are you sure?" Nanon asked, I know why he is hesitating; if my fans or anyone else sees me with someone, then it will be a mess. Well, I don't care about that anymore, as someday everyone will know about my boyfriend, so why not today?

I wanted to make him happy. I know Nanon wanted to go out and spend his time with me, but I couldn't do anything because of my busy schedule today. I've been out to prepare this surprise date for him; that's why I came late home.

"I'm sure, love."

"Ok, when are you taking me on a date? Nanon asked excitedly, making me chuckle.

"Right now," I said, making his lips part a little in surprise.

"Huh?"

I nodded my head while pushing out of our home.

"Let's go"

"Like this, I'm not even ready yet," Nanon said while I kissed his cheeks.

"You're beautiful the way you are; now come on, let's go," I said while locking the door, and then I started to drag him, holding his hand.

Soon we reached the park, and I saw him looking around curiously.

When I blindfolded him, "What? What are you doing?"

"Do you trust me?" I asked, knowing very well about his answer.

"More than my life," he said, making me smile. I helped him walk out of the car.

I held him from behind. "Where are we going?" He asked while I just chuckled at his curiosity.

"My curious kitten, you will know soon."

I slowly guided him to the place, and I opened his blindfold. He blinked his eyes for a few seconds to adjust the lighting, then opened his eyes.

twoje diy

His eyes widened at the place. "Oh, it's so beautiful," Nanon said I smiled at his cute reaction.

I back-hugged him.

"Ohm," he mumbled while leaning against my chest.

"No, I can't wait much longer. I wanted to spend my life with you. I'll say what I've been wanting to say to you for years. I can't wait any longer. You are so patient with your love, but I am not. I can't lose you, Non. Having you at my side is what completes, defines, and fulfills me. You fulfill me. So marry me and we will complete the circle together! The day I found you, I discovered the cause for my smile. "I love you, non," I replied, still clutching him. I turned Nanon to face me, who was now absolutely stunned. My heart was racing so rapidly that it could explode at any time.

Nanon, on the other hand, is thoroughly frightened and on the verge of passing out from shock. His heart is racing, his eyes are welling up with tears, and the love of his life standing in front of him, staring at him with such love that he has never felt before.

He was even more surprised when Ohm kneeled, holding a box in his hands.

"You are the one I wanted to find, and I want you to know that I need you my entire life. You taught me what real love is. I, Ohm Pawat, love Nanon Korapat more than anything else in the world. Will you marry me?" I smiled at him as I spoke. He wiped away tears from his eyes.

He knows Nanon loves him, but he is afraid. What if he rejects him? What if Nanon isn't ready yet? So many things are racing through his mind.

Nanon was so damn happy that he too kneeled with him.

"Ohm, I am lucky to have you in my life. I've always assumed that I'd never find anybody to love me because I've always been an orphaned child who is rejected by everyone. I have seen you in films and am a huge fan of your work. But never in my wildest dreams did I imagine you being my boyfriend. We know forbidden fruits are always tastier; we are two people who can't be friends, but now look at us," Nanon murmured, smiling and crying with his forehead against mine.

"You pulled me out of my trauma, your love healed me, and you treasured me more than anything in this world. I have no idea what I did to deserve this much love from you. I wanted to marry you, Ohm, and have a family with you. I love you very much, Ohm," Nanon whispered, causing me to cry. He took something from his pocket and held it in front of me, which astonished me.

"I've always wanted to be the first person to propose to you, but you win me on this too," Nanon remarked with a pout, making me laugh with tears.

He put the ring on my finger, and I did the same.

NO ONE POV

They gently drew their heads closer together before kissing. The kiss was pure, with no lust. They were both fully invested in their kiss. They were both so eager for each other's love that they kissed passionately after two minutes.

They drew back from the kiss, breathing heavily. They both rested their heads on one other's foreheads and held their faces.

"I LOVE YOU," they both said while looking into their eyes and smiling like fools.

Ohm held his hands. "You wanted to spend time with me right today. We are going to stay here only you and I; no one will come to this place."

"We will watch movies and enjoy the whole night with me, my fiance," Ohm said, making Nanon blush.

"Oh no, I forgot something," Ohm said, making Nanon confused. He took his phone and took a picture while holding Nanon's hand.

"Ohm, are you sure? I don't want to ruin your career."

"There is nothing wrong with loving someone. I love you, and the world needs to know about the person I love. I don't care what others will think or say; I wanted to be with you without any fear," Ohm said, making Nanon smile.

Nanon_korapat I'm so overwhelmed right now, well I always am when in with you. Before I met you; I didn't think love was for me. It was something other people had and felt. Something in movies and TV shows. It felt more like a wish I had than something real. Now that I'm with you, love is so much more tangible. It's something I can reach out and touch. It's so much more than a wish or a hope (though it does give me hope for so many things); it's the genuine, wonderful person I wake up to the warm hand next to mine, the brush of hair against my cheek. I love you, and because of that love, I love you so much more than you. I love myself and the world in a way I never thought possible. You've made that possible for me. Ohm looked at Nanon, who was scrolling through Ohm's post.

Nanon's account is private, so he only gets positive comments as they all know about his relationship with Ohm.

"Let's not read the comments. Let's just enjoy our date, Ohm said while taking the mobile away from Nanon, who pouted.

"Oh, now I'm worried. What if this destroys your career? "There are already many negative comments on the internet," Nanon added, grasping Ohm's hand, who simply shook his head with a smile.

"It doesn't matter, Nanon, as long as you are beside me. I love you, and I did what was best for our future, and I will not regret it. "If they don't accept me for who I am, they aren't my fans and don't deserve to be," Ohm remarked, kissing Nanon's forehead and making Nanon grin slightly. He still gets a horrible feeling about everything.

"Now come on and give me your cute dimple smile, na na."Ohm began to whine like a puppy, burying his face into Nanon's neck and making him giggle.

"Stop it, it tickles," Nanon said with a chuckle.

"Now, that's my Nanon," Ohm said while kissing Nanon's dimple.

"You and your obsession over my dimples," Nanon said while shaking his head with a smile.

Ohm put on the heartstopper series and enjoyed their date night.

⚠ Trigger warning ( Bullying, Harassment, Suicide )

NO ONE POV

Fans have always suspected Ohm was bisexual, but they never imagined it would be confirmed.

Some backed OhmNanon, while others were horrified, and some were outraged with Nanon for snatching their Ohm and claiming it as their own.

Bunch of idiots, that's how Ohm like to call them.

Anyway, OhmNanon wasn't bothered by the hate comments. Everything has been going well for Ohm, but not for Nanon.

Nanon began to receive dead threads on Instagram and other social media accounts, so Ohm intervened and resolved the issue, but Nanon's college classmates resumed bullying him over time.

Nanon felt as if he was returning to the world that Ohm had drawn him away from.

Nanon tried so hard to ignore them, but it was getting out of hand.

One day, Nanon came back home with bruises on his cheeks.

"Non, what happened?" Ohm noticed the bruise on his cheeks and questioned, holding his face. He merely shook his head, but Ohm ignored him.

"If you are not going to say, then it's fine. I've got my own ways to deal with this," Ohm said as his eyes darkened at the thought of someone hurting his non.

Nanon held his hand with a sigh. "It's nothing; just leave it; they will eventually stop once they get bored."

"You shouldn't get used to their shit." Ohm was about to say but stopped himself while hugging Nanon, trying to calm himself down.

Nanon leaned on Ohm's hug, feeling warmth spreading through his whole body, making him sigh in contentment.

"I will take care of it. Come on, now you need to take some rest," he said while sweeping Nanon off his feet, making him laugh. Ohm rubbed his nose with Nanon's making him giggle.

He lay Nanon on the bed. Nanon looked at Ohm while holding his hands out like a baby for Ohm to hold him.

Ohm smiled at the cute gesture while lying next to Nanon, making him lie on his chest.

"Take care of him," Ohm said to Chimon, as he had to go to Paris for 4 weeks for his new movie shoot.

"baby, I will be back as soon as the shoot is over," Ohm said as Nanon pouted.

"I'm going to miss you," Nanon said while hugging Ohm, making him melt in his hug.

"I am already missing you; I don't want to go." Ohm started to whine while his fans were silently looking at the lovely moment, smiling and squealing in happiness. While there are also a few haters at the moment.,

Nanon and Chimon came to send Ohm off to Paris, as it is the longest he is going to be away from Nanon.

They both let go of each other. Ohm kissed Nanon's cheeks, then his lips, making Nanon blush.

"Ohm, everyone is watching," Nanon said while trying to move away from Ohm, who held him tightly by his waist.

"I don't care; I'm just loving my fiance; there is nothing wrong with it," Ohm said proudly while again peeking at Nanon's lips, making his eyes wide.

"Ok, ok, enough, lovely doves. It's getting late, Ohm. You are going to miss your flight. I will take care of your non baby," Chimon said while teasing Nanon, who just pouted, lightly slapping Chimon's shoulder.

"Ok, then I'll take my leave, Ohm said while kissing Nanon's forehead.

"Bye, baby, I'll call you once I reach there, Ohm said while waving his hands at Nanon and then his fans.

Everything was different. Nanon began receiving dead threads after Ohm left for Paris. Instead of injuring Nanon physically, they began to harm him mentally.

He received letters from haters; some letters are written in blood, and bloody toys are always visible in his locker, which gave him a big trauma.

Nanon tried to ignore Ohm's calls, as he didn't want to make Ohm worried. He didn't say anything to Chimon. Chimon thought Nanon was being sad because he missed Ohm.

When it comes to hiding emotions, Nanon can beat almost every actor in the film industry. Only Ohm can find out if something is wrong with Nanon. That's the reason Nanon is trying so hard to ignore Ohm's calls.

This continues until he reaches his breaking point.

When the shoot was completed, Ohm came back. He completed his shot for Nanon ahead of schedule. He left right after finishing to catch his flight back to Bangkok.

It has been a long time, and he is really delighted and excited to see Nanon. Additionally, the grief in Nanon's voice worries him every time they speak on the phone.

Since Nanon often said, "I miss you, with so much sadness," at the end of their conversion, he assumed that Nanon was missing him. He's afraid of this voice since it reminds him of old Nanon. When he got to his flat, he waved those thoughts away.

The hallway was empty as he opened the door to his flat. "Nanon, baby, where are you?" Ohm yelled as he looked around the their bedroom.

He's having a bad feeling about all this, so he called Chimon.

"Where are you?" Ohm asked as soon as Chimon picked up the call.

Chimon: "Wow, not even a hello, you ungrateful brat."

"Its not the time, mon, Nanon is not in his room," Ohm said, making Chim worried as he went out to buy some ice cream for Nanon, as he seemed to be sad.

"He asked for ice cream, so I came out to buy his favourite ice cream as he seemed to be sad. Where could he be gone? When did you come back?" Chimon asked, making me worried. He hung up the call. He tried to call Nanon, but he didn't pick up the call. Ohm walked out of the apartment to his car and started to look through his tracking device.

Ohm installed this app for Nanon's safety. When he looked at the location, his eyes started to weep up in tears, and his hands started to shake in fear.

It was the same place where he once saved Nanon.

He started to drive fast to reach the place, and when he reached the place, he saw Nanon sitting on the railing, looking at the sky.

"NANON! Ohm shouted. Nanon looked behind him and smiled sadly at him. "I'm sorry, Ohm," Nanon said, letting go of his hands and making Ohm's eyes wide.

Ohm hurried to the river's edge and stared down. He couldn't find Nanon without thinking, he leaped in the river.

He searched for Nanon and discovered him unconscious. He swam immediately to Nanon and pulled him out of the water.

After Ohm carried Nanon back to shore, a crowd gathered around them. Some of the poisonous admirers grinned, while others stared at them. Looking at the situation one person grabbed his phone and called an ambulance.

"Non, you can't do this to me. Wake up, love, please." Ohm shouted while holding Nanon in his arms. He stared at his shaking hands, which were now stained with Nanon's blood, which made him cry even harder.

"Where is Nanon?" Tay asked as soon as he reached.

Behind him, Ohm family was rushing there too. They got a call from Chinon half an hour ago saying Nanon was in the hospital.

"Where is he??" Ohm's mom asks, looking at him worriedly.

Ohm's mom's eyes were puffy. She knew something bad had happened when Chimon didn't say much on the phone.

"Mom, calm down, please. We took him to the hospital right on time. He is in there. The doctors are examining him..." Chimon said while wiping his tears. Ohm's mom looks at the place Chimon is pointing at. Her eyes widen. O..ot??

Tay and others jolted too.

"What is he doing there? Where is ohm?" Mrs.Pawat asked, and Chimon pointed at Ohm, who was looking at his hand with a blank face.

Mrs.Pawat went to him and said, "Ohm." She called, and he didn't respond to her. Mrs. Pawat stops before him and kneels before him slowly.

He looks at him for a moment. Mrs.Pawat was trembling right now.

"Ohm, are you hurt too??" Mrs. Pawat asked in a low voice, looking at Om. Ohm doesn't reply to him.

"Ohm, look at me. You hurt somewhere too?? this blood..."Mrs. Pawat asks again.

"Mom, that's Nanon's..."Chimon says from behind,"That blood isn't t Ohm's." Mrs. Pawat's whole body was trembling right now.

"M..my nanon's blood??" Has he bled this much??" She mumbles too, while trying to stay strong for her son.

"I failed him, mom, didn't I?" Ohm asked as tears started to flow from his eyes. Ohm, mom shook his head.

"Nanon is strong, baby. He will come back to us. We will heal him. We will take action on who ever did this to my son-in-law," Mrs. Pawat said while hugging Ohm, who started to cry after being held by his mom.

They all looked at the room when the doctor came out.

Chimon went to the doctor. "How is he, doctor?"

"I'm sorry we tried our best; he has slipped into a coma. Currently, the patient is unconscious, and we are closely monitoring his condition. The coma is a result of head trauma or brain injury; he is shocked by something. We are doing everything we can to stabilise the patient and provide the necessary medical care. At this time, it's challenging to predict the outcome, and we will continue to keep you updated on any changes in the patient's condition. For now, he is out of danger. We will move him to a normal ward. Now it's up to Nanon's will to wake up or not." The doctor said that and went from there. Ohm sat there without moving.

"My nanon will be fine. He will wake up soon. I know him; he is not that cruel to leave me alone here. Ohm mumbled that everyone was crying while his mom was trying to control her tears.

"Mum, I came back to suprice him, but I never in a million years imagined that I would be suprised this badly. Mom, I just couldn't stop seeing that he was bleeding in my arms. I witnessed him fall from the bridge, and my soul left my body. Mom, he will be okay, right? He will wake up soon, right, mom?" Ohm's mother merely nodded her head in answer to his question. From then, she left with her spouse trailing after. Not wanting to cry in front of her son.

>> 1 week passed.

It has been one week since Nanon went into a coma. Ohm visits him every day, as the hospital won't allow anyone to stay.

He would cry and blame himself for his non-condition.

Everyone helped Ohm and took turns taking care of Nanon.

Like that, it's also another day. Ohm didn't want to leave Nanon, but Chimon is the one who forced him to go back home. After freshenup, Ohm was going to see Non. He got ready and went towards his car. Suddenly, Ohm got a call from the hospital. He started to get anxious and started to feel scared. He took a deep breath with a shaky hand and picked up the call.

"Hello, doctor, is something wrong? Nanon is okay, right? I'm on my way."

"Hey, first, calm down. Nothing to worry about; he just woke up from his come," the doctor said, which made Ohm's eyes fill with happy tears.

"Thank you so much. I'll be there asap," Ohm said, hanging up. He quickly got in the car and drove straight towards the hospital.

---

He parked his car in the parking lot and ran towards the Nanon room. Ohm held the handle while trying to suppress his emotions.

He opened the door and saw that Chimon was scolding Nanon.

They both looked at the door and saw Ohm standing there with a blank face.

Nanon didn't have the guts to look up. He slowly lowered his head and started to play with his hand.

Chimon tapped Nanon's shoulder. "Take care, non. I'll see you tomorrow."

Chimon went towards Ohm and said, "Don't be harsh on him. He just woke up from his coma. I'll wait outside for you." With that, he went from there.

Ohm didn't say anything; he just stood there looking at Nanon, and for the first time in Nanon's life, he couldn't find what was going through Ohm's mind.

5 minutes passed. No one spoke, and Nanon decided to break the silence.

Nanon: "O-ohm, I'm s-or---"

He couldn't complete his sentence when Ohm shouted with tears in his eyes, "STOP! Stop talking!"

He just looked down. Tears started to flow from his eyes.

"So you still remember me, huh? Didn't you think about me when you did this selfish act? Did you forget our promises with each other, or did you just forget about my total existence, or did you think I'm dead?"

"OHM!"

"You couldn't even hear me being dead. What did you think about me? Non. You were lying lifeless in my arms. Your breath had stopped for two times. When I took you out from the river, you were bleeding. My hands are filled with your blood. Did you know how I felt that moment? That moment, I was like a lifeless doll who is just breathing. You totally forgot about me, non. How can you act selfish and think to leave me behind? What would I do if something happened to you? This one week is a hell for me, not knowing if you will wake up or not. You just decided to let me go. You wouldn't have done that if you remembered me."Ohm said tears continuously flowing from his eyes.

Nanon cried even harder. Ohm couldn't see him like that, so he went towards him and hugged him.

Nanon flinched at that, making Ohm confused.

Nanon saw Ohm so relaxed and hugged him back while crying.

Ohm sat on the bed and started to caress his back to calm Nanon down.

"I'm sorry Ohm... I just couldn't handle the depression. I thought I should say everything to you, but my insecurities, which I started to feel again, didn't let me. I don't want to disturb you when you're shooting. You've been working hard for this movie, and I couldn't bring myself to be your burden. Ohm.... I try to be strong, but I'm tired of all that happened in those past weeks. It changes to hell for me. Ohm.... Do you know what they did? All started to bully me in university, but back then I'm used to it, so I didn't mind it. They started to give me death threats. They gave me some kind of doll that was filled with blood.

I try to tolerate everything, but the day before I tried to k..kill myself was the day I completely lost myself. I couldn't fight after that... th..they tried to fo..force th..themselves on me."

Ohm furious, he was ready to rip Whoever made his nanon in this condition

Nanon started to breathe heavily, and he started to have panic attacks. Ohm quickly hugged him and started to whisper sweet words.

"Shh, non, baby, breathe in, breathe out. Calm down, baby. Hey, love, relax. Don't panic. But it's just an attack. Come on, breathe. Breath for your ohm. Come on, follow my breathing." Ohm said, and Nanon did what he was told, and Nanon calmed down, making Ohm sign in relief.

Nanon again started to speak. Ohm tried to stop him, but Nanon refused to do that.

"That day, someone saved me from them... I have only you who gave me happiness; you're the only one who supported me through my worst, but thinking about your career is destroying because of me, which made me lose myself. I can't let your dreams and hard work go in vain because of me."Nanon said while crying.

Ohm placed his hand on Nanon's cheeks and wiped his tears.

"You know my career is nothing in front of you. Without you, I'm nothing.

Non, you're my dream that happened real... I'll take care of them. You're safe with me, non? Just don't think of doing that again... I can't see you like this. It is really a hell for me."

They both hugged.

Nanon cried out loudly, clenching his fist on Ohm's shirt.

"Everything will be alright. Let it out, baby. Cry as much as you want. I'm here for you." Ohm mumbled kissing his top of the head.

After a few minutes of crying, Nanon finally drifted to sleep in Ohm's warm embrace, and Ohm carefully laid him on the bed, covering him with a blanket. Ohm kissed his forehead and went out.

I saw Chimon waiting for him.

He hugged Chimon and cried on his shoulder.

"I-i failed to protect him. I failed h-him. He suffered so much, and I didn't know anything."

Chimon slapped his shoulder and made him sit on the bench.

"Look here. It's not your fault. Stop blaming yourself. Ohm. You should be strong for non. Did Nanon say anything?"

Ohm nodded his head and said everything to Chimon.

Chimon clenched his fist, fuming in anger.

Chimon: "Those bastards... I'm not letting them go... They made my brother go through hell while they were enjoying their lives. I'm going to make sure to ruin everyone's life for this. Ohm, it's not your fault. First, go to the doctor and talk to him."

Ohm nodded his head and went towards the doctor's cabin.

Doctor: "Ohm, you don't need to worry, Nanon is fine, but..."

Ohm: "Is everything okay, doctor? He's fine, right?"

"Physically, he's fine! But mentally, he's not alone. Don't leave him alone. His mental health is not stable. He can get panic attacks and nightmares. He can again try to hurt himself. I've prescribed some medicines, but you're the only person who can cure him.

Your love and care are the biggest medicine for his current state."

Ohm: "Sure doctor! When can I discharge him?"

"His wounds are healed; we just have to keep him for observation. You can discharge him tomorrow."

Ohm: "Thank you, doctor. I'll take my leave."
